Tips for review

- 1) Focus on most of your time on "shaky material"
- 2) Review a little each day rather than all at once
- 3) Review material MORE THAN ONCE
- 4) Review in groups
- 5) Review using different methods (flashcards, writing sentences, repetition, youtube, dictation, writing over and over again)
- 6) Make sample questions and pre-write as much as you can. For the letter, you should pre-write the entire letter.

In this packet

1. Study Schedule
2. Directions (the actual directions from the final)
3. Vocabulary/ Map
4. Alphabet

Part 6 Essay in English (20 minutes)

Essay:

Cultural question spanning several units (20 minutes)

You and a friend who does not take Arabic are talking. She hears that you are learning Arabic and is curious.

She asks, "why do you take Arabic?" She continues, "Arabs are so different from Americans; they dress differently, they are all Muslim, the language sounds funny and is written backwards. The women in the Arab world have no rights! Men make them wear all black and cover their heads and face. All their countries are deserts. There is so much violence in the Middle East you could never go there anyway!"

Respond to your friend thoughtfully, using examples from class to support your ideas. Use the 'Iceburg metaphor' to explain how your friend has misunderstood Arabs and Arab culture.

1) You must explain "the iceberg metaphor" (visible/ invisible parts of culture)

2) You must show how Arab culture is multi-faceted (i.e. not all Arabs are the same).

3) You must reference at least one of the films we watched (Wadjda, Amreeka)

4) You must reference at least one of the discussions we have had about culture:

(Why learn Arabic?, Country presentations, Is Arabic written backwards?, Stereotypes, How do we see the world?, What is culture?, Visitors, Aladin*, Food specialties)

Arabic Final Review Checklist
